

Globalisation and Cultural Diversity

2 x 3 Hour Modules

As a country, we need to better understand the world and where Australia is positioned and then we can consider the many variables that constitute the global marketplace and plan for business success.

This program is designed to increase and stimulate participants' knowledge of global issues as well as give them the knowledge, skills & attributes required to successfully grasp the realities of the ever changing global workplace in which they operate that, in turn will enable better planning and the implementation of workplace strategies designed to deliver great results and increased productivity.

The Benefits

- Have a better understanding of the world economy, the global marketplace & Australia's position in it
- Make informed & considered decisions from a global perspective
- Effectively plan to position your organisation globally
- Have a better understanding of the current and future workforce dynamics
- Improve cultural tolerance and team performance
- Understand and accept individual difference

Who should attend?

Managers, regardless of their seniority, line managers and those who manage an international multi cultural workplace.

How will it be delivered?

This is offered as either a 1 day interactive workshop program or over 2 x 3 hour modules with each module offered a week apart to enable practical workplace application in between.

"Small opportunities are often the beginning of great enterprises."

Demosthenes

What you will cover

- Changing economies and points of manufacture now and up to 2020
- Education needs, direction and imperatives
- Issues facing Australian business in the global economy
- Cultural co-operation, understanding and relationships
- The importance of Asia for Australian industry, on shore & offshore activities and the labour market that will be required
- View issues from different perspectives and cultures
- Valuing the human kaleidoscope and cultural heritage
- Factors affecting productivity & workforce dynamics
- The Australian workplace now and in 2020; how will we get there?
- How we are going to work and live; the unacceptable becomes acceptable
- Planning for business success

Your facilitator will provide up to three months of email and telephone support after your course!